INTERNATIONAL WOMENS DAY AT DELEGATE.

Another successful International Women's Day was held in Delegate on Thursday 8th March at the Delegate School of Arts.

The weather was dismal but it could not dampen the enthusiasm of the ladies who gathered for the delicious morning tea, the displays, the presentations, the stalls and the wonderful massages provided by the Cooma Community Health Service.

After the proceedings were opened by Lana Martin McInnes the first presentation was made by Jo Hagger on behalf of Karen Cash. Jo outlined the progress of the Platypus Walk and reserve on the Delegate River and directed our attention to the very colourful and informative display about this project.

The next speaker was Snowy River Councillor, small businesswoman, representative of Monaro Small Business Services, mother, wife and general dogsbody, Kris Laird. Kris gave an entertaining account of setting up a small business, standing for council elections, serving as a councillor, travelling for the small business services and still being a caring mother and wife. She was an inspiration to any woman who has wondered if she could set up a business. Kris indicated that she would be willing to run information sessions in Delegate.

Natalie Armstrong then took the opportunity to give out the awards for the Bush Poetry Competition. Olga Benham was presented with first prize and an encouragement award, Katrina Jamieson accepted second prize on behalf of her mother Irene Allen.

The ladies then moved to the Country Club for the luncheon and Women's Day awards. see page 3

BUSH POETRY COMPETITION

Owing to the fact that there was no local show, the Bush Poetry entries were judged in the week before the show, and prize winners were read out at the International Women's Day.

The first prize went to Olga Benham, whose poem is published on page 4. Second prize went to Irene Allen and the Encouragement Awards went to Jean Manning and Olga Benham for her second poem "The Mulberry Tree". There was only one entry in the Junior Section and Matt Towns was awarded first prize for his poem entitled "Spirit of the Wild Brumbies". The Judge was impressed with Matt's good use of metaphor and visual imagination.

INTERNATIONAL WOMENS' DAY (Contd)

At the Country Club following a delicious lunch provided by Louise and Lana, the annual Community Awards were presented by Lana Martin-McInnes to the following: Penny Campbell for starting a successful business venture in Bombala and Sally Chaplin for her role in re-establishing a branch of the CWA in Bombala. Two other community minded ladies who were absent, Tanja Ponsford and Carol Badiewitz also received awards. Karen Cash was unfortunately unable to attend because flood waters prevented her from leaving her property, and Lana capably deputised for her with the assistance of Sally Ann Thompson, whom Lana thanked for helping out. Lana outlined the services which HACC provides, which include home modifications, transport, personal care, and many other.

Continuing in the theme of growing local businesses, the Guest speaker was Caroline Fox from the popular Cooma restaurant cum gift shop, "The Lott".

Caroline described how the business had doubled in size, now seating 54 with improved facilities including a second kitchen. They have a philosophy of using local and Australian made products, and hope to soon have a liquor licence.

BUNDIAN WAY DINNER

Representatives from the Eden Lands Council, Ozzie Cruze and B J and co-ordinator of the South-East Forests Project, John Blay attended a delightful dinner put on by the Delegate DPA at the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen.

Ozzie Cruze thanked the DPA and the Delegate people for their continued hospitality and emphasised the shared history of the Bundian walking track.

John Blay outlined the progress of the project adding that the final arrangements will not be made until all problems with insurance etc are solved.

THE KEROSENE LAMP

Our table was long of necessity,
our family was large,
the rule rather than the exception
in depression days.
Mealtimes over, heads crowded
towards the centre.
Young ones at homework,
older sisters at fancywork,
ceaseless mending for our mother,
her careworn face lit by the soft glow
of the kerosene lamp.

A world gone mad.
The light of lives and love --- blacked out.
Man's inhumanity to man.
Empty chairs,
and the careworn face no longer there,
in the soft glow of the kerosene lamp.

Peace of a kind, with affluence,
a consumer society as never known before.
In love or self-indulgence we gave,
and children took, and we gloried
in their higher education.
The uneasy peace prevails,
and their questions seep through
the plastic curtain.

I watch the cycle turn.
Carefully the lamp is placed on the table,
eagerly small fingers switch off the lights,
a chubby hand holds a box of matches.

Admiring faces, delighted faces,
we dine in the soft glow
of the kerosene lamp.

Now sleep eludes me.
This generation of our creation,
victims on a treadmill?
with courage to raise their voices?
Wisdom to recognise and challenge
the double standard?
Education to understand the futility
of the system?

So many questions. And now I ask the most fearful of all.
Will the world of our grandchildren be lit by the fierce flame
of nuclear weapons?
Or by the soft glow
of the kerosene lamp?

SENIORS WEEK

Delegate Seniors enjoyed a number of free computer classes during seniors week. Subjects offered were genealogy, internet shopping, calendar making, downloading photos and computer hardware and software problems. Many seniors took advantage of this great opportunity to learn something new amongst good company.

Keep your eyes open next year for the seniors week program.

DELEGATE SCHOOL OF ARTS

The Delegate School of Arts is arguably the most interesting building in Delegate. Its uses, over the years, have been many and varied. Not only is it a memorial to our brave soldiers, but it has been used for concerts, badminton, roller skating, wedding receptions and other family celebrations etc. In order to compile a history of this wonderful old building, I need the assistance of people in the community. If you have photos of the building itself, photos and newspaper clippings of events held there, photos and information re committee members etc., could you please contact Sandra O'Hagan on 64588028. I appreciate that people are reluctant to part with original photos and newspaper clippings, but if you would bring them to me, I can scan them into my computer right away and give you back your originals immediately. Any assistance will be greatly appreciated.

BOMBALA ART GROUP EXHIBITION OPENS IN ORBOST

Art works by ten local artists went on exhibition on Sunday April 1st at the Orbost Exhibition Centre.

A good number of visitors came for the occasion and the exhibit received much favourable comment. The Centre is a magnificent venue, a modern three level building with an open plan for the lower floors, while the top level has a small theatre which is used for many different functions. The exhibition will be open until the 26th April. Below: Back Sue Haslingden, Stuart Lee, Jo Haggard, Lou Stephen. Front: Sharon Buckman, Natalie Armstrong, Gloria Cotterill.

CABANANDRA CAMPDRAFT

The Cabanandra Campdraft Committee once again held a successful draft over the weekend of 23rd, 24th & 25th March. The organisers were kept busy with over 600 entries, run in near perfect conditions and with excellent cattle and some great scores were made. A big crowd enjoyed the Roast Dinner on Saturday night, followed by outdoor dancing to the popular music of the "Poddy Dodgers"

With the event having to be cancelled last year due to a flood in the Snowy River and with the river rising again from heavy rain, as well as Snowy Hydro dam releases contributing to the problem, we were inundated with calls from concerned competitors.

However, our grateful thanks must go to Vic Roads for organising repairs to McKillop's Bridge in time to enable the cattle to cross for this year's draft.

The Committee wish to express their sincere thanks to all the volunteers who worked so tirelessly to make the draft run so smoothly over the weekend – we couldn't have done without you! Thanks must also go to the cattle donors, drovers, judges, barmen, caterers and to Yvonne & Vernon for manning the first aid tent all weekend.

Below: The day was warm and the cattle were thirsty, so they were pleased to arrive at the Snowy River.

DELEGATE SCHOOL NEWS

Cross Country

Students at the Delegate Public School participated in the Bombala District Cross Country Carnival on Tuesday 20th March. On a beautiful, sunny day all the students gave their best running efforts at the Delegate Country Club course.

The local cross country event included participants from the following schools: Delegate, Bibbenluke, St Josephs and Bombala. The competition was fierce, with the 8 to 10 year old competitors running 2km and the 11 to 13 year old competitors running 3km.

All the hard work on the day paid off, with Delegate School coming in second to Bombala Public who won the overall trophy. They also came in second in the handicap points to St Joseph's.

On Friday the 30th March several Delegate students will be competing in the Snowy Mountains District Cross Country Carnival, which is being held at Nimmitabel again this year. Competitors will come from Adaminaby, Jindabyne, Dalgety, Cooma, Numerella, Bredbo, Berridale, Bibbenluke, Bombala and Delegate to compete in the District Carnival. We wish all the Delegate Students the best of luck on Friday.

We would also like to thank Brian Murphy for his course presentation and the Board for allowing us to convene the carnival at the Country Club again this year. Thank you to all parents and helpers that set up the course, ran the canteen and helped throughout the day.

CARERS AUSTRALIA RIDE PASSES THROUGH DELEGATE.

Sixty riders and their back up crews passed through Delegate on Friday afternoon on their way to an overnight stay in Bombala before continuing on to Canberra the next day. The Leader of the Opposition Tony Abbott was part of the cycling team raising money for the charity Carers Australia. The group had their first morning stop at Goongerah school before arriving at Bonang where they were treated to a sumptuous and much appreciated lunch after their long ride.

Some of the riders including Tony Abbot stopped for a coffee at Ulands Cafe, and some for a beer at the Delegate Hotel, meeting and chatting with locals who had gathered to watch the riders. There was much praise for the beauty of the ride through the bush along the Bonang Highway, and the Country around Delegate was picture perfect and much admired by the visitors most of whom had never been this way before. Pictures of Tony Abbott meeting and greeting locals on back page.

The next morning after meeting with locals in Bombala, Tony Abbott opened the Junior Bibbenluke Rugby League Carnival which attracted over 700 children from the Coast and Tablelands.

HERE & THERE

Happy Birthday to all the April people including Angie Ingram, Kath Ingram, Natalie Armstrong, Rachel Clear, George Tonissen, and Cheryl Mustard. Happy 50th also to Murray Mustard

Seniors week has been a busy week for our senior citizens, with lots of activities in Bombala, including a day trip to Pambula and Merimbula and some interesting computer lessons including genealogy. At the Delegate RT/CT Centre

cluding coming second in the $100,000 National Sprint in Canberra. "On the Lookout" is trained by former local Barbara Joseph and son Paul who also trained the winner of the 2012 Canberra Cup on the same day, so it was celebrations all round

On the day before the commencement of the Annual Cabanandra, all roads lead to Tom Ventry's property at Deddick., where the Campdraft is fortunately on again this year. Last year it had to be cancelled because the Snowy River was in flood, which is of course the case again this year. However this time after some repairs to McKillop's Bridge the cattle were walked over the bridge.

No sport news from the Delegate Tennis Club, as each regular event has been washed out. Perhaps water polo would be an appropriate sport at present, as there is much water lying about, walking groups are having to stick to the roads. The Committee are hoping April will be a dryer month.

Good news for Rugby League followers in Bombala Shire as they will be fielding a combined Pambula Merimbula/Bombala team, hopefully in all three grades.

Also League Tag for the ladies is on at Pambula and local enthusiasts are invited to attend.

A local syndicate has had success with their racehorse "On the Lookout" in recent times, notching up a win and two placing in-

The St. Andrews Church Committee will be holding their annual cake and plant stall on 27th April, and would welcome any donations for same.

The Falls Prevention Expo at the Country Club should be of benefit to all ages. A fall can change the quality of life for anyone, and seniors being particularly vulnerable should gain some useful knowledge in falls prevention.

Clay Smith made his senior debut for the Western Bulldogs against West Coast on the week-end. Clay was over the moon at the unexpected news. His proud family were there to watch him play.
