ANZAC DAY IN DELEGATE

Following the Dawn Service, the 11am commemoration and march was well attended. Phil Pope RSL President led the service as marchers stood to attention in front of the Memorial Gates. Prayers and readings were done by Alisha McMillan, representing the Delegate Public School, Jayne Sellers, Sandra Walker, Garry Mallard, Robin Mikula and Jeremy Clear. At the conclusion of the service wreaths were laid at the Memorial gates by Councillor Sue Haslingden, the RSL, School Children and others. It was a beautiful warm day and while some of the crowd and marchers adjourned to the Hotel for liquid refreshments, others moved on to the Country club for lunch. After lunch the traditional game of two-up took place.

Dear Members of the Delegate Progress Association,

I am writing on behalf of the Delegate MPS Branch of NSWNMA to thank you all for your wonderful support during our ongoing local campaign to improve access to medical services and healthcare for the community.

To date community support and input into our endeavours has had a beneficial and positive impact with local politicians and the media who have responded positively to our issues.

Thank you once again.

Yours sincerely

Barbara Tiernan

Sec/Delegate Delegate MPS Branch

THANKYOU

The family of the late Flatout Jones wish to express their sincere appreciation to the community of Delegate and surrounds for their support, sympathy and comfort in our bereavement. It may be a little community, but it has a big heart. We especially thank the ladies for the beautiful floral arrangements in the church, those for the many floral tributes, food deliveries, cards and phone calls.

Also a big thank you to the Delegate Hospital Auxiliary for the wonderful spread at the Country Club, Father Mick for his devotion prior and after and to Sapphire Coast Funerals for their kindness and professionalism with the funeral arrangements.

We cannot thank everyone individually as there are far too many, but you know who you are and we have been deeply touched and overwhelmed by your ongoing support.

Thank you.

The family of the late Enid Stewart would like to thank the following people for their care and support: The Delegate Community, including mum's extended family and friends Dr Pate and the staff of the Delegate MPS Father Mick, Sr Therese Keane, The Delegate Country Club, the Delegate Hospital Auxiliary, Pam Roberts, Lorraine Cottrell, Sandra Walker and Joyce Reed for the beautiful flower arrangements and Sapphire Coast Funerals.

Please accept this as a token of our appreciation for all you did for mum.

DUCK RACE

A very big crowd attended the duck race at Bill Jeffreys Park on Good Friday. This year it was run for the Delegate Public School P & C, who would have made a good profit with the sale of hundreds of ducks. The river was a bit sluggish, so no speed records until the ducks reached the rapids on the bend. There were four separate races and the winners were Lachy Tibbut, Shu Hsin Fang (Ocean) Joe Camm and Storm Summer

The boat races are also a great hit with the kids, with boats they have made and decorated for the occasion. The day was warm so the kids and organisers enjoyed getting in the water. The Kitchen Eighty Ate Food van were kept very busy keeping up with the demand.

A funky chair competition was also held in conjunction with the duck race and the Delegate Pre-School won a prize with their colourful chair.

Below: Joan Jones enjoyed the company of son Mark and family, who came down from Cooma for the day. R: Sam Tonks from Monaro Post is usually the one behind the camera lens, but we caught her and her two daughters Pippa and Summer enjoying the day at the duck races.

May Garden in Delegate

The climate is truly changing, we are into May with no appreciable frost. This means that the garden is in limbo, stranded in an extended Autumn. Deciduous fruit trees are still in green leaf, many deciduous ornamental trees have not coloured well, particularly those with the red tones that rely on a cold trigger. Summer annuals linger in a tatty state but most problematic are the summer perennials e.g. dahlias and hollyhocks that have not fully entered dormancy. Both of these have hollow stems so if the plants are cut back before they have fully died down it is easy for water to travel down into the tubers causing them to rot. A trick is to seal the cut ends with aluminium foil.

It is tempting to launch into a thorough tidy up of the garden while the days are still warm enough to make working outside a joy. It is absolutely the right time to pull out and replace the spent annuals even though they are still sporting a few flowers. Wherever the annuals come out a thick layer of mulch will stop the weed explosion that always accompanies bare and disturbed ground. The mulch will also replace the soil carbon and nutrients used up over summer giving a good start to any replacement winter-season seedlings. It is also time to cut back and thin clumping perennials. Dealing with the perennials takes a bit more effort as the job is not finished when the withered flower spikes are removed e.g. Easter daisies because it is essential that the clumps are thinned. If this step is neglected the clumps will be so congested by next year that flowering will be lank and disappointing as well the potential for them to take over swathes of garden space. A fair bit of heavy fork work is necessary as well as suffering the “emotional pain” of destroying a lot of healthy plant material. It does feel a bit better if some can be given away.

Unfortunately digging always compromises earthworms. Garden worms eat decaying organic matter and their digestive system breaks down complex substances like lignin and wax into the configuration that is ready for soil fungi and bacteria to work on. Through this co-operative effort elements are returned to soil in a soluble form that can then be taken up by plant roots. Perhaps the most valuable service worms perform for plants is to concentrate iron (Fe) in the slime used to line their burrows exuded by their bodies. Worms live in permanent burrows emerging at night to consume surface food. Worms require the presence of moisture and cool conditions - they cannot work optimally when the soil is dry, very hot or frozen. This is why maintaining a surface cover in the form of mulch or living material is so important. Such cover modifies soil temperatures and maintains soil water for as long as possible allowing soil organisms the best chance to perform their function. The worm burrows provide channels for water to enter the soil rather than flowing over the surface as runoff. This is why worms are seen at the soil surface after rain – their homes are flooded poor things!!

In our area the most common cause for tree decline is lichen on the bark which prevents the tree breathing through its lenticels. Lenticels are often quite prominent and give the bark of many trees their decorative appearance e.g. the horizontal black stripes on silver birch bark. It is recommended to spray the affected tree when dormant with lime sulphur and later, where practical, scrape off clumps of dead lichen. The lime sulphur treatment is also an essential annual spray for deciduous fruit trees as it also minimises carry over pests such as mites.

There is plenty to do in the vegie patch too. It is time to plant garlic bulbs, sow onions, cabbage, Asian greens, mustard greens, lettuce, radish, rocket, coriander, turnips and English spinach.

Here the lichen has gained a foothold in the lenticel and grown to block the breathing pore completely.

BUNDIAN GALLERY OPENING

An excellent display of the work by talented aboriginal artist Cheryl Davison, which has drawn many admiring comments. It will be shown until the end of May.

The Exhibition was officially opened by Councillor Bob Stewart in front of a very good crowd, before guests mingled and enjoyed a glass of wine and generous array of nibbles.

OOPS - WRONG CAMPDRAFT REPORT.

Apologies from Jan for sending the wrong report last month—her computer was having a meltdown and she inadvertently sent last year's report. BELOW IS THE REPORT OF THE 2019 DELEGATE CAMPDRAFT.

The Delegate Campdraft Committee and their band of volunteer workers conducted a very successful Campdraft over the weekend of 8th, 9th and 10th March. Under dry and dusty conditions, but not too hot, the cattle ran extremely well and competitors scored accordingly, with full course after full course on the score sheets.

Thanks to the organisation of President Damien Ventry and his band of yard men and drovers who kept the cattle flowing all weekend. Thanks also to Norm Talbot and his drivers who ferried local mobs to and fro.

The Encouragement Draft kicked off at 1.00 pm on Friday with 31 one run competitors, judged by Beau Kimber, with Emily Lucas and "Doug" taking firstplace and Tayler Miners and "Oak" in second.

Next event was the Ladies, also restricted to one run, and 64 contestants vied for placings under the watchful eye of Judge Ian Laurie. Keryn Gardiner and "This Duck's Smart" came out winners in front of Chrissie French and "Amity".

Maiden One with 106 entries was next up and Chrissie French took the whip for this event. The final was held over till Saturday and was won by Mel Warren and "Spud" with Alana Chamberlain and "Smart Spin & Aces" and Ian Laurie and "Autumn" dividing 2nd and 3rd.

Maiden Two with 117 entries was first up Saturday morning, with Judge Peter Ferguson calling the scores.

The Juniors and Juveniles were next to compete and capably judged by Ian Laurie. Local Ron Flanagan generously sponsors the Juveniles each year along with Alan "Snake" Guthrie, who makes and donates headstalls and halters for winners of various events. Our thanks also to Dalys Whipp who generously sponsored all junior competitors.

255 entrants in Novice One in the capable hands of Judge Lucy Sellers, produced some outstanding drafting. On Sunday, 30 finalists battled it out for the six placings. Jade French and "Jayleen" took out the honours ahead of Keryn Gardiner and "This Ducks Smart", 3rd place to John Mitchell and "Corona", 4th Ian Laurie and "Rising Star", 5th Mick Otton and "Anemone" and 6th Alana Chamberlain and "Jazzway".

81 Novice for Novice competitors were judged by Sandra Brabon. First place went to Chrissie French and "Amity" ahead of Phil Collins and "Lil Mister".

Open One and Open Two, with 100 and 93 entrants respectively, were judged by Peter Ferguson and produced some excellent runs. Phil Collins and "Bob Jane" took Open One on a run off with Ian Laurie and "Catwoman" while Keryn Gardiner and "Easybeat" were victorious in Open Two from Steve Mooney and "Danny".

A big thank you to Harold Boot Company for once again sponsoring three events.

The Delegate Campdraft is made possible by the huge effort of the local Community who give their time to make and donate food and work in the kiosk and run the bar. Saturday nights roast dinner, which has become a looked forward to feature, is another event that just doesn't happen by itself. Our grateful thanks to everyone who helped in any way at all, both over the weekend and in cleaning up on Monday.

Mustering of cattle in the Deddick Valley began the previous Saturday and a dedicated band of experienced drovers brought a large mob to Delegate over the ensuing week. But it doesn't end with the last whip crack on Sunday arvo. All these cattle have to be returned home and accounted for, a mammoth task which only finishes the following Sunday.

A big thank you to our cattle donors and judges and to all those who stepped up to do a stint on the front or side gates over the weekend.

We wish Nicky Chamberlain a speedy recovery after having a nasty fall on Saturday morning.

God willing we will be back again next year.

DELEGATE PONY CLUB NEWS

Delegate Pony Club riders were busy on Sunday 7th April with four riders heading off to Dalgety to take part in the Snowy River Pony Club's Gymkhana. All riders represented the Club very well.

Anna Cameron came away with Age Champion for her age led group. Aspen Cameron came home with Aged Champion in the 7 & under 9's. Lydia Jamieson was Aged Champion and Gabby Kidd Reserved Age Champion representing the 9 & Under 11's and on top of all that Lydia took home 3rd place and Gabby took home 4th place in the E grade jumping for the day.

Well done to the riders who had a fun and competitive day.

Delegate Pony Club hosted the monthly rally as usual, with a roll up of 7 riders. In the morning riders warmed up with flatwork and troop drill, in preparation for the upcoming Anzac day march. In the second session riders worked on their jumping and maintaining a consistent rhythm throughout a line of jumps. During lunch members had a discussion about what are suitable living conditions for a pony. They then finished the day by working through a couple of mounted games which included the sock race and the rope race.

The weekend before Lydia represented Delegate Pony Club at the Michelago Sporting Spectacular. Lydia participated in 17 events against some tough competition with children from many pony clubs including Yass, Sutton, Murrumbateman, Cooma, Cobargo, Oberon and Wamboin. Lydia successfully placed in all 17 sporting events taking out 10 first places, 6 second places and 1 third place. She also had the opportunity to participate in the flag spectacular as her flag race time was in the top 20 for the day. Lydia won the 10 Year Age Champion for the weekend and was presented with a new rug for AJ for their efforts. Next rally day is the 5th May, 930am gear check with a 10am start. Please check our FB page for any changes.

KATE GUTHRIE RECEVES DIPLOMA

Congratulations to Kate Guthrie who received her diploma on the 18th March after completing Bachelor of Justice Studies at the University of Canberra, majoring in Law and Society. Kate is the daughter of Wayne and Karen Guthrie of Jerrabomberra and the granddaughter of John and Reidun Bradley of Queanbeyan and Peter and Trish Guthrie of Bendoc.

TIGERS HERITAGE JUMPER

On the day of the Heritage football game in Delegate Andrew Guthrie was presented with his Tigers jumper by Max Clear. Unfortunately we missed getting a photo, so below Andrew is wearing the jumper and is photographed with his mother Robin.

HAPPY 99th BIRTHDAY EDNA

Mrs. Edna Reed celebrated her 99th birthday with her family on the 7th April. A resident at the local MPS, she went out to her home for the day, where her family had gathered for this special celebration.

Left: with granddaughter Eliza who was wearing a family heirloom, a dress hand sewn by her great grandmother Honora Neylan for her wedding to Angus Stewart in 1866 in Braidwood. Honora graduated from Braidwood Catholic Teachers College and taught at both Cathcart and Bibbenluke schools. The dress bustle and train was worn with a coffee lace jabot and face veil.

DELEGATE SCHOOL NEWS

Snowy Monaro Regional PSSA Cross Country

On Wednesday of last week sixteen of our students represented Bombala District PSSA at the Regional Carnival in Nimmitabel. Thank you so much to parents and carers who supported the school with transportation and to the Delegate Country Club for allowing us to use the Community Bus to transport students as well. Our students displayed exemplary behaviour and outstanding sportsmanship on the day. Congratulations to all students who competed on the day and to the following students who achieved top 20 finishes in their respective age groups: Isabella 6th, Layla 20th, Cooper 11th, Logan 18th, Billie 13th, Errinundra 2nd and Lydia 11th. These are outstanding results for our school and all competitors should be very proud of themselves. Errinundra now has the opportunity to represent the Snowy Monaro Region at the south Coast Regional Carnival to be held on Friday 7 June 2019 at Cambewarra.

Delegate Public School Athletics Carnival

Yesterday we held our annual Athletics Carnival here at school. Thank you to so many families who came along to share in the day with our students. The students displayed a high level of skill and sportsmanship throughout the day, not to mention their sense of fun when participating in all activities. I would like to thank all staff for their efforts in ensuring the carnival ran as successfully as it did, and to the students who worked tirelessly to help set the carnival up in the morning. Congratulations to all students who qualified for the field events at the Bombala District PSSA Carnival in Term 2, you will receive a separate notification shortly informing you of the events you will be competing in. A further congratulation goes to Charlie (K12) and Lincoln (3456) for being awarded Sportsmanship Awards on the day. So much fun was had by all.

HERE & THERE

Many Happy Returns to Gail Smallman, who celebrated her 70th birthday recently with family and friends.

Also Happy birthday to those born in May including, Mark Guthrie, Marilyn Callaghan, Jordan Cameron, Rhett Guthrie, James Preston, Suzy Kidd, Mel Kidd, Missy Potts, Beryl Stuart, Joy Douch.

The death occurred in Canberra of one of one of our long time subscribers to the Doings, Jane Crawford (nee Walker) aged 95, who passed away in hospital after a short illness. Jane is survived by three children Alan, Sue, Julie and Debbie, husband Murray having passed away two years ago. Janie's funeral took place in Canberra Friday 26/4/19. Both Jane and Murray were born in Delegate where they spent their early lives. Sympathy is extended to all.

The death occurred at Moruya Hospital recently after a short illness of former Delegate resident Maria Callaway. Following a private cremation, there will be a graveside service for Maria at the Delegate Cemetery on Saturday 4th May. Maria is survived by her husband Kevin, and four children, Kim, Trina, Toni and Justin, nine grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

The death of Paul Yelds took place on the 1st May at Bega Hospital following a long illness. Paul spent his early life in Bombala before moving to Merimbula, where he ran an electrical business. He is survived by his wife Natasha and two daughters, Courtney and Alex, mother and father Ian and Anne Yelds, and one sister Toni.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to all the bereaved..

John Blay has compiled a draft map for walkers of the Bundian Way. Starting at the top of the Australian continent at Mt. Kosciuszko, it details the walk all the way to the coast near Eden. The walk has not been officially opened yet and many formalities have yet to be dealt with. Although some camping places have been indicated, few have any facilities, like toilets, fresh water or shelter, but hopefully soon. Of course the walk can be done in reverse, and it promises to be popular with walkers as are similar walking trails throughout the world. At the coastal end around Delegate/Corrowong, Craigie/Mila there are already facilities which could be utilised and we are wondering if these areas will be opened for walks before the entire track is completed

Queanbeyan always puts on a fitting Anzac Day Commemoration with a large crowd in attendance. This year Delegate and the Men from Snowy River were again mentioned during their service. It must be said that during the Men from Snowy River re-enactment in November 2015, the Queanbeyan RSL and the Mayor gave the marchers and supporters a wonderful welcome, honouring and paying respect to the men who took part in the 1916 march.

Queanbeyan was one of their major stopping off places for the original march, and a group of men from that area joined in.

The popular winter darts competition is due to start on Wednesday 22nd May at the Delegate Hotel. Please put your names in if wanting to take part.

To kick the season off there will be a Bombala vs Delegate match on 18th May.

The Delegate Hospital Auxiliary would like to thank the ladies of the district, who have supported them by generously supplying food for their catering at the Country Club. As a small group, with a lot of demands, they are most appreciative.

LOOKING BACK

Below The Southern Monaro Country Week Hockey team. July 1938. Dawn Armstrong and Heather Callaghan are on left in back row, and Edna Reed is in centre of middle row. Edna says the hockey matches were played in a field just below the present day tennis courts.

The Delegate Cricket team in 1938;

The ones we recognise are Neville Callaghan 2nd from back, Front row: Murray Crawford, Clem Ingram, Vince Jones, Doug Campbell and Jack Campbell.

Perhaps some of our readers can help with the other names.

Cricket was very popular at that time and there were a number of teams in the competition, including Bendoc, Delegate River and Mila, probably more.

HERITAGE FOOTBALL DAY A WONDERFUL SUCCESS

A massive crowd attended the Rugby League and Tag football matches between Bombala and Cooma on Saturday 6th April. It was a case of getting there early if you wanted a good vantage point to watch the three excellent games. At half time in the Reserve Grade match, past Delegate players presented the jumpers with their former numbers to the Bombala first grade players, many of the former Tigers from the 1969 winning team, travelling back for the occasion. Delegate and surrounds were picture perfect for the big day, with the football ground green and in excellent condition. Most of the crowd went on to a packed Country Club, for a meal and the jumper auction. A great day for the town and for the Bombala players who won all three matches.
